ACT

To provide for the establishment of the Namibia Institute of Public Administration and Management, and to provide for its administration and control of its affairs and the regulation of its activities; and to provide for incidental matters.

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of Namibia, as follows:

Part I – PRELIMINARY

1. Definitions

In this Act, unless the context otherwise indicates -

“Board” means the Training and Development Board of NIPAM referred to in section 16;

“Council” means the Governing Council of NIPAM referred to in section 7;

“Executive Director” means the Executive Director of NIPAM appointed in terms of section 26;

“NIPAM” means the Namibia Institute of Public Administration and Management established by section 2;

“regulation” means a regulation made under section 42;

“rules” means the rules made under section 42;

“State-owned Enterprises Governance Act” means the State-owned Enterprises Governance Act, 2006 (Act No. 2 of 2006); and

[The State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 was re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 by Act 8 of 2015 (GG 5835).]

“this Act”, includes the regulations and rules.

Part II – NAMIBIA INSTITUTE OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION AND MANAGEMENT

2. Establishment of NIPAM

- (1) There is established a public institute for training, operational research, capacity evaluation and consultancy to be known as the Namibia Institute of Public Administration and Management.
- (2) The shortened form of the Namibia Institute of Public Administration and Management is “NIPAM”, and which may be used as an alternative to, and independent from, that name.
- (3) The seat of NIPAM is in Windhoek.

3. Status of NIPAM

NIPAM is a juristic person and a State-owned enterprise governed by this Act and the State-owned Enterprises Governance Act.

[The State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 was re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 by Act 8 of 2015 (GG 5835).]

4. Common seal of NIPAM

- (1) NIPAM must have a common seal and such seal may from time to time be changed, altered or made anew as NIPAM thinks fit.
- (2) All deeds and other documents requiring the seal of NIPAM must be sealed with the common seal of NIPAM.
- (3) The Council may, by resolution or otherwise in writing, appoint an officer of NIPAM or any other agent, generally or in any particular case to execute or sign on behalf of NIPAM any agreement or other instrument in relation to any matter falling within the powers of NIPAM.
- (4) All courts, judges and persons acting judicially must take judicial notice of the common seal of NIPAM affixed to any document and presume that it was duly affixed.

5. Objects of NIPAM

The objects of NIPAM are -

- (a) to systematize capacity building interventions and to function as a dedicated training and development institution for the unified Public Service in Namibia;
- (b) to provide such training or cause such training to be provided, and to conduct such examinations or tests as may be necessary as a qualification for the appointment, promotion or transfer of persons in or to the public service;
- (c) to foster among public servants a sense of the purpose, values, and traditions of a public service which serves the people of Namibia and promotes their welfare and lawful interests;
- (d) to develop a new generation of holistic managers with capacity to manage public policies, strategies and projects in a dynamic and complex environments;

[The phrase “a dynamic and complex environments” is grammatically incorrect.]

- (e) to enable the public servants to acquire analytical, creative, advisory, administrative and other skills and knowledge necessary to formulate and execute policies and directives, respond to change, including changes in social, cultural, racial and linguistic character of the Namibian society, and implement government programmes, resources and services efficiently, effectively, sustainably and equitably;
- (f) to provide flexible learning opportunities and platform by way of a Learning Resource Centre supported by authentic information and documentation;

[The phrase “to provide flexible learning opportunities and platform” is grammatically incorrect.]

- (g) to help public servants develop cooperative relationships with colleagues, professionals and other persons at offices, ministries and agencies and at all levels of the Public Service through enlightened leadership, motivation, effective communication and innovation for high-quality service to the public;
- (h) to facilitate awareness building in Namibia and internationally on issues related to public sector management and good governance and to involve a wide range of individuals and institutions in pursuit of excellence in public administration;
- (i) to act as a centre of excellence and think tank for the public sector of Namibia, organize debates, workshops or seminars on topics related to public management and administration;
- (j) to establish an observatory of capacity building needs in the Namibian Public Service, especially through capacity evaluation, regular surveys, impact assessment studies for government, development and donor agencies and undertake private sector and public management consulting assignments;
- (k) to collaborate and strengthen partnerships between public administrations and civil society organizations at central, regional and local levels, and with other institutions and bodies having similar objectives; and
- (l) to study and document the good practices, success and failure stories and create a bank of such practices for public sector capacity building.

6. Powers of NIPAM

- (1) In carrying out its objects, NIPAM has the power to -
 - (a) acquire, manage, maintain, design and implement programmes for development;
 - (b) assist offices, ministries, agencies, organizational components and other entities of the Government of the Republic of Namibia through capacity building programmes, operational research, studies and documentation developed at, by or on behalf of the NIPAM;
 - (c) cooperate with other persons and bodies engaged in public administration, management and development;
 - (d) contribute funds for the pursuit of operational, applied research or other activities related to the theory and practice of public sector management;
 - (e) provide training, operational research and capacity evaluation services and facilities to public service staff members, and charge fees;
 - (f) license, sell or otherwise make available any copyright, trade-mark or other like property rights held, controlled or administered by NIPAM; and
 - (g) do all such things as are necessary or incidental to the attainment of the objects of NIPAM.
- (2) In carrying out its objects and exercising its powers under this Act, NIPAM, with the consent of the head of such entity, may make use of any available services or facilities of office, ministry, agency, organizational component or other entity of the Government, that are appropriate for the effective operation of NIPAM.

Part III – GOVERNING COUNCIL AND TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT BOARD

7. Constitution of Council

- (1) Subject to this Act, the governance and general control of NIPAM and of all its affairs and functions, and the management of its property, are vested in the Governing Council of NIPAM.
- (2) The members of the Council, including the chairperson and the vice-chairperson, are constituted or appointed in accordance with, and for a period determined under sections 14 and 15 of the State-owned Governance Act, as follows -

[The State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 was re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 by Act 8 of 2015 (GG 5835).]

- (a) the Secretary to the Cabinet, as chairperson;
 - (b) the Executive Director, ex officio;
 - (c) two persons selected by the Prime Minister by considering the gender balance, academic excellence and experience relevant to the objects of NIPAM;
 - (d) a person nominated by the Namibia Chamber of Commerce and Industry who represents the interests of that sector;
 - (e) a person nominated by the Public Service Commission;
 - (f) a person nominated by the recognized trade union with an exclusive bargaining status for public service employees;
 - (g) a person nominated by the Association of Regional Councils;
 - (h) a person nominated by the Association of the Local Authorities in Namibia; and
 - (i) two persons nominated by NIPAM to represent the capacity building, research or related interests of NIPAM keeping the gender balance into consideration.
- (3) The members of the Council must at the first meeting of the Council elect a person from amongst their number as vice-chairperson of the Council.
- (4) The Council may co-opt two persons as members on a rotation basis from the countries or international organisations offering assistance and support in public sector capacity building to NIPAM or the Government, and such members may take part in deliberation of matters before the Council, but have no right to vote.
- (5) Whenever any nomination in terms of subsection (2)(d), (e), (f), (g), (h) or (i) becomes necessary the Prime Minister must, in writing, request the nominating authority referred to in that subsection to nominate, within the period specified in the request, a person for appointment as member of the Council.
- (6) If a nomination is not received by the Prime Minister within the period requested, the Prime Minister may appoint such person or persons as the Prime Minister thinks fit, and a person so appointed holds office as if such person had been nominated as required under subsection (2).
- (7) A staff member of NIPAM may only qualify for appointment as member of the Council under subsection (2)(b) or (i).
- (8) The Prime Minister may request the nominating authorities referred to in subsection 2(d), (e), (f), (g) or (h) to nominate persons for appointment as alternate members of their respective members of the Council.

8. Powers and functions of Council

The powers and functions of the Council are -

- (a) to make rules and guidelines of NIPAM;
- (b) to approve Strategic Plan and Annual Business Plan of NIPAM;

[The word “the” should appear before the phrase “Strategic Plan and Annual Business Plan”.]

- (c) to approve the annual budget of NIPAM;
- (d) to accept the management of any endowment trust, fund, subscription or donation consistent with the objects of the institute;
- (e) to approve proposals for loans from financial institutions for funding of NIPAM activities, in agreement with the Minister responsible for finance;
- (f) to create posts on the establishment of NIPAM, and determine conditions of service;
- (g) to consider and approve annual reports, including financial statements and accounts of NIPAM;
- (h) to prepare and execute detailed plans and programmes for the furtherance of the objects of NIPAM;
- (i) to approve the development and expansion plan of NIPAM; and
- (j) to appoint, suspend or discharge administrative staff, trainers, specialists or consultants of NIPAM.

9. Disqualification for appointment as member

A person is not qualified for appointment as a member or alternate member of the Council, if the person -

- (a) is an un-rehabilitated insolvent;

- (d) has been removed from an office of trust on account of misconduct;
- (e) has been at any time convicted of an offence and sentenced to a period of imprisonment without the option of a fine.

10. Terms of office of member

Unless otherwise determined in terms of section 14 of the State-owned Enterprises Governance Act, a member of the Council appointed in terms of section 7(2)(c) to (i) holds office for a period of three years, and is eligible for reappointment at the expiry of that term.

[The State-owned Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 was re-named the Public Enterprises Governance Act 2 of 2006 by Act 8 of 2015 (GG 5835).]

11. Vacation of office of member

- (1) The office of a member becomes vacant, if the nomination is withdrawn by the nominating authority who nominated the member for appointment, or if the member -
 - (a) becomes subject to a disqualification mentioned in section 9;
 - (b) resigns by notice in writing to the Prime Minister;
 - (c) is absent from two consecutive Council meetings without permission of the Council; or
 - (d) is removed from office under subsection (2).

- (2) The Prime Minister, by notice in writing, may remove a member from office if the Prime Minister, after affording the member an opportunity to be heard, is satisfied that the member -
 - (a) is incapacitated by physical or mental illness; or
 - (b) is, for any valid reason, unable or unfit to properly, efficiently and effectively discharge the functions of a member.
- (3) Whenever the Prime Minister acts under subsection (2), the Prime Minister may first suspend the member concerned from his or her office pending a final decision on whether or not the member should be removed.
- (4) If a member dies or vacates office before the expiry of his or her term of office, the Prime Minister must, as soon as reasonable possibly after receiving notice of the vacancy, appoint a person in accordance with section 7 to fill the vacancy for the remaining portion of that member's term of office.

[The word "possible" is misspelt in the Government Gazette, as reproduced above.]

12. Disclosure of interest of members of Council and committees

- (1) If a member of the Council or a committee has any direct or indirect interest in any matter which is the subject of consideration at the meeting of the Council or committee, and that matter may cause a conflict of interest to arise, the member -
 - (a) must disclose the nature of the interest to the Council or committee before or at the commencement of the meeting; and
 - (b) may not participate in the meeting, unless the other members, after considering the disclosure made in terms paragraph (a) direct otherwise.
- (2) If at any stage during a meeting of the Council or a committee it appears that a member or member of a committee has or may have any interest which may cause a conflict of interest to arise, the member must as soon as possible -
 - (a) fully disclose the nature of such interest; and
 - (b) leave the meeting to enable the remaining members to consider the disclosure and determine whether the member is excluded from participating in the meeting by reason of a conflict of interests.
- (3) A disclosure by a member or a member of a committee in accordance with subsection (1) or (2), and a decision taken by the members or members of the committee in connection with such disclosure must be recorded in the minutes of the meeting concerned.
- (4) A decision on a matter taken by the Council or a committee at a meeting where a member or member of a committee took part in contravention of subsection (1) or (2) must be cancelled and the matter reconsidered at the ensuing meeting of the Council or committee.
- (5) Despite subsection (4), a member of the Council or a member of a committee who contravenes or fails to comply with subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding N$8 000 or to imprisonment not exceeding a period of two years, or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

13. Meetings and decisions of Council

- (1) The Chairperson or, in his or her absence, the Vice-Chairperson, presides at meetings of the Council, or, in the absence of both the Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson, the members present at the meeting must elect from amongst their number a member to preside at that meeting.
- (2) The Council must hold at least three meetings during the financial year of NIPAM.

- (3) The first meeting of the Council must be held at the time and place determined by the Prime Minister and thereafter meetings must be held at such times and places as the Council may determine, but the Chairperson may at any time, and must at the written request of the Prime Minister or at least three voting members, convene a special meeting of the Council.
- (4) The business which is of urgent nature and which cannot be kept pending till the next meeting may be transacted by circulation among all members of the Council and any resolution so circulated and approved by a majority of the members is as effective and binding as if such resolution had been passed at a meeting of the Council provided that any business so transacted must be reported at the next meeting of the Council.
- (5) The majority of all the members of the Council forms a quorum at any meeting of the Council.
- (6) A decision of the majority of the members present at a meeting constitutes the decision of the Council and in the event of an equality of votes the member presiding at the meeting has a casting vote in addition to his or her deliberative vote.
- (7) A decision of the Council or an act performed on authority of the Council is not invalid -
 - (a) by reason of a vacancy on the Council;
 - (b) by reason of the fact that a person who is not entitled to be present as a member was present when the decision was taken or the act was authorized,if the decision was taken or the act was authorized, by a majority of the members who were present and entitled to vote at the meeting.
- (8) The Council must cause proper minutes of proceedings of its meetings to be kept.
