ACT

To provide for the combating of brothels, prostitution and other immoral practices and for matters connected therewith.

(Afrikaans text signed by the Administrator-General on 27 October 1980)

BE IT ENACTED by the National Assembly of South West Africa, as follows:-

1. Definitions

In this Act, unless the context indicates otherwise -

“brothel” includes any house or place kept or used for purposes of prostitution or for persons to visit for the purpose of having unlawful carnal intercourse or for any other lewd or immoral purpose;

[\[Hendricks & Others v Attorney General, Namibia & Others 2002 NR 353 \(HC\):\]](#)

[\[“Section 1\(1\) of the Combating of Immoral Practices Act, 1980, is declared unconstitutional only to the extent that the words ‘... or for persons to visit for the purpose of having unlawful carnal intercourse or for any other lewd or immoral purpose’ appear therein as part of the extended definition of ‘brothel’ and the inclusion of those words are unconstitutional, void and of no effect and are therefore struck from the definition.”\]](#)

[\[Note that the court order obviously meant to refer to section 1\(i\), which is the definition of “brothel” in the Official Gazette \(where Roman numerals are used to correlate definitions in the English and Afrikaans texts which would appear in different alphabetical orders\). There is no section 1\(1\).\]](#)

“house” includes a dwelling-house, flat, building, room, out-house, shed or tent or any part thereof;

“owner” includes any person who lets or sublets or permits the occupation of any house or place whether in his own right or that of another;

“place” includes any premises, field, enclosure, space, vehicle or boat or any part thereof;

“police officer” means any member of any police force established under any law;

“sexual act” means a sexual act as defined in section 1(1) of the Combating of Rape Act, 2000;

[definition of “sexual act” inserted by Act 7 of 2000]

“unlawful carnal intercourse” means carnal intercourse between persons who are not married or who are not partners in a customary union in terms of the traditional laws and customs applied by a particular population group referred to in section 3 of the Representative Authorities Proclamation, 1980 (Proclamation AG. 8 of 1980).

[The Representative Authorities Proclamation, AG 8 of 1980, was repealed by Article 144 of the Namibian Constitution.]

Hendricks & Others v Attorney General, Namibia & Others 2002 NR 353 (HC) declared all of subsection (2) “unconstitutional and of no force or effect”.]

- (3) When in any prosecution in terms of this Act it is proved -
 - (a) that any house or place is kept or used as a brothel and that, having regard to the locality and accommodation thereof, the rent to be paid or paid or being paid for the house or place concerned is exorbitant, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that the accused knew that the house or place concerned was kept or used as a brothel;

The citation “Act 79 of 1965” is missing an opening bracket. Section 33 of the National Welfare Act 79 of 1965 is no longer in force; social workers are now registered under the Social Work and Psychology Act [6 of 2004.]
