- (2) A zoning scheme prepared in terms of this Act must conform to the applicable urban structure plan, if at the time of the adoption of the zoning scheme in terms of section 44\(2\) an urban structure plan has been approved in terms of this Act.

43. Responsibility to prepare zoning scheme

- (1) A local authority may prepare or cause to be prepared a zoning scheme in respect of land situated in its area of jurisdiction.
- (2) The Minister may in writing direct the Permanent Secretary to prepare a zoning scheme in respect of land outside a local authority area.
- (3) The Permanent Secretary may in writing direct a local authority referred to in subsection (1) to prepare or cause to be prepared a zoning scheme in respect of land situated in its area of jurisdiction within the period specified in the directive.
- (4) The Permanent Secretary may at the written and motivated request of a local authority contemplated to in subsection (3) extend the period contemplated in that subsection.
- (5) If a local authority fails to prepare a zoning scheme in terms of subsection (3) or (4), the Permanent Secretary may -
 - (a) after consultation with the local authority, prepare or cause to be prepared a zoning scheme; and
 - (b) recover from the local authority the costs in relation to the preparation of the zoning scheme.
- (6) A zoning scheme may be prepared in terms of this section despite the fact that a national spatial development framework, a regional structure plan or an urban structure plan has not been prepared or approved in terms of this Act.

- (7) A zoning scheme prepared in terms of this Act must be approved by the Minister.

44. Preparation of draft zoning scheme

- (1) If a local authority in terms of section 43(1) or the Permanent Secretary in terms of section 43(2) or (5) decides to prepare a zoning scheme the local authority or the Permanent Secretary must -
- (a) prepare or cause to be prepared a draft zoning scheme; and
 - (b) comply with other requirements which may be prescribed.
- (2) After the preparation of the draft zoning scheme in terms of subsection (1) the relevant local authority must adopt the draft zoning scheme.

45. Application for approval of zoning scheme

- (1) After the adoption of the draft zoning scheme in terms of section 44(2), the local authority must apply to the Minister for the approval of that zoning scheme.
- (2) The application referred to in subsection (1), must be lodged with the Permanent Secretary and must -
- (a) be made in the form determined by the Minister;
 - (b) be accompanied by a certified copy of the resolution adopting the draft zoning scheme;
 - (c) be accompanied by the zoning scheme adopted in terms of section 44(2);
 - (d) be accompanied by the prescribed fees, if any; and
 - (e) contain documents and information which may be prescribed.
- (3) On receipt of an application in terms of subsection (2), the Minister must refer the application to the Board.
- (4) On receipt of an application in terms of subsection (3), the Board must in the prescribed form and manner give notice -
- (a) that a draft zoning scheme has been submitted to the Minister for his or her approval;
 - (b) that the draft zoning scheme including the relevant documents will lie open for inspection at the places and during the periods specified in the notice; and
 - (c) that comments and objections to the draft zoning scheme must be lodged with the secretary of the Board, at the places and during the periods specified in the notice.
- (5) Comments and objections contemplated in subsection (4), must -
- (a) be in writing and in any other form indicated in the notice referred to in that subsection; and
 - (b) in the case of objections, clearly set out the grounds for objections.

46. Hearing

- (1) On the expiry of the period for the lodging of comments and objections in terms of section 45(4), the Board must determine the date, place and time for the hearing of the application for approval of a zoning scheme.
- (2) If no comments or objections are lodged in terms of section 45(5), the Board may decide not to hold a hearing.
- (3) The secretary of the Board must in writing give -
- (a) the local authority which prepared and adopted the draft zoning scheme; and

- (b) every person who lodged a written comment or objection in terms of section 45\(4\), reasonable notice of the hearing referred to in subsection (1).
- (4) The notice of the hearing in terms of subsection (3), must -
 - (a) specify the place, date and time of the hearing;

 - (d) have access to the relevant documents produced in evidence.
- (7) At the conclusion of a hearing in terms of this section or after making a decision in terms of subsection (2), the Board -
 - (a) may recommend to the Minister to approve or not to approve the application for the approval of the zoning scheme;
 - (b) may recommend to the Minister to approve the application for the approval of the zoning scheme with or without conditions; and
 - (c) must send to the Minister, the zoning scheme, comments and objections, if any, a copy of the minutes of its proceedings as well as a report containing its recommendations.
- (8) The Board must hold a hearing in terms of subsection (1) and must make recommendations in terms of subsection (7) within the prescribed period.

47. Minister's decision on application

- (1) The Minister must consider the application for approval of the zoning scheme and the accompanying information received in terms of section 46\(7\), and may -
 - (a) approve the application with or without conditions and must in writing inform the relevant local authority;
 - (b) approve the application subject to such amendments the Minister considers necessary; or
 - (c) decide not to approve the application.
- (2) If the Minister -
 - (a) acts in terms of subsection (1)(b), the Minister must in writing inform the relevant local authority of his or her decision and -
 - (i) inform the local authority to make the proposed amendments and to submit the revised zoning scheme to the Minister within the period specified in the notification; and

- (ii) inform the local authority that if it wishes to make representations on the proposed amendments to make such representations to the Board within the period specified in the notification.
 - (b) decides to act in terms of subsection 1(c), the Minister must inform the relevant local authority of his or her decision and the reasons for not approving the application and must allow the local authority to make representations, if it so wishes, to the Board on the matter within the period specified by the Minister.
- (3) If representations are made under subsection (2), the Board must after hearing the representations -
 - (a) make recommendations it considers necessary; and
 - (b) send to the Minister, the representations made and a copy of the minutes of its proceedings as well as a report containing its recommendations.
- (4) On receipt of the Board's recommendations, if any, under subsection (3) or if no representations are made under subsection (2), the Minister must make a final decision.
- (5) If a zoning scheme is approved in terms of this section, the Minister must inform the relevant local authority and the Board and the Board must send a copy of the zoning scheme as approved by the Minister to the relevant local authority, the Registrar of Deeds and the Surveyor-General.

48. Matters to be considered

In deciding whether or not to approve an application for an approval of a zoning scheme in terms of section 47, the Minister must take into account the following -

- (a) comments and objections, if any, received in respect of the zoning scheme;
- (b) recommendations made by the Board in respect of the zoning scheme;
- (c) the human and financial resources available or likely to be available for the implementation of the zoning scheme;
- (d) the likely impacts of the zoning scheme on the environment, socio-economic conditions and cultural heritage;
- (e) whether the requirements of other applicable legislation have been complied with;
- (f) the impact of the zoning scheme on existing or proposed developments or land uses in the area;
- (g) the provision of engineering services;
- (h) access to and capacity of the national road network or the municipal road network;
- (i) access to public transport, health and educational facilities;
- (j) the impact of the proposed zoning scheme on municipal services, water and electricity supply, sewage, waste management and removal, safety and security;
- (k) the protection or preservation of cultural and natural resources, unique areas or features and biodiversity;
- (l) the natural and physical qualities of the area;
- (m) the national spatial development framework and the applicable regional structure plan approved in terms of this Act;
- (n) the applicable urban structure plan approved in terms of this Act; and
- (o) the objects set out in section 2;
- (p) principles and standards referred to in section 3; and

- (q) any other relevant or prescribed information or documents.

49. Commencement and status of approved zoning scheme

- (1) After the approval of a zoning scheme in terms of section 47, the Minister must in the Gazette give notice of approval of the zoning scheme and the zoning scheme so approved comes into operation on the date of the publication of the notice.
- (2) A zoning scheme which has been approved by the Minister and published in the Gazette has the force of law and is binding on the relevant local authority, organs of state and all persons.

50. Continuation of zoning scheme

If land situated in the local authority area of one particular local authority is incorporated in the local authority area of another local authority any zoning scheme applicable to that land remains, subject to this Act, in force.

51. Prohibition of certain works, uses and activities on land pending approval of zoning scheme

- (1) If a local authority has by resolution adopted a draft zoning scheme in terms of section 44\(2\) and it appears to the local authority that a provision of that zoning scheme will be contravened if -
 - (a) construction of or alteration to a building is undertaken or proceeded with;
 - (b) other work is performed, undertaken or proceeded with; or
 - (c) particular use is made of land or a building;the local authority may, by written notice to the owner of the land or the building, prohibit the activity concerned.
- (2) If a local authority has by resolution adopted a draft zoning scheme in terms of section 44\(2\), the local authority may not approve a building plan for the construction of or alteration to a building which is in conflict with the draft zoning scheme adopted in terms of that section.
- (3) The person to whom a notice is given under subsection (1) and who feels aggrieved by the action taken under that subsection may appeal against such action to the Minister in the manner set out in section 129.
- (4) If the person contemplated in subsection (1) fails to comply with a notice issued under that subsection and fails to appeal as contemplated in subsection (3) the local authority, after the expiry of the period of appeal, may -
 - (a) apply to the court for an order compelling the owner to remove or alter a building or other structural work which does not conform to the provisions of the draft zoning scheme, so as to bring it into conformity with the provisions of the draft zoning scheme;
 - (b) apply to the court for an order compelling the owner to remove or alter a building or other structural work constructed or carried out in contravention of a provision of the draft zoning scheme, so as to bring it into conformity with the provisions of the draft zoning scheme; or
 - (c) execute work which it is the duty of the person to execute under the draft zoning scheme in a case where delay in the execution of the work has occurred and the efficient operation of the scheme will be prejudiced by the delay.
- (5) The local authority may recover from the person contemplated in subsection (1) reasonable expenses incurred in the exercise of its powers under subsection (4).

52. Varying of subdivision and lay-out

- (1) On the coming into operation of a zoning scheme, the relevant local authority may by written notice request the owner of land in the area to which the zoning scheme applies -
 - (a) to take such steps as may be necessary to vary the existing subdivision or lay-out of such land in order to bring it into conformity with the provisions of the zoning scheme;
 - (b) to cause any necessary amendment of the plan or diagram of the land and any necessary alteration or endorsement of the title deed and any necessary entry in the deeds registry to be made or recorded by the Surveyor-General and the Registrar of Deeds; and
 - (c) to effect any transfers of land which may be rendered necessary by the provisions of the zoning scheme.
- (2) The Surveyor-General and the Registrar of Deeds must, insofar as is necessary, give effect to the requirements of subsection (1)(b) and (c).
- (3) The relevant local authority is responsible for reasonable expenses incurred by the owner of land in respect of an action taken in terms of subsection (1).

53. Continued use of certain land

- (1) If, at the date of coming into operation of a zoning scheme, land is used for a purpose or a land use right which is not provided for in the scheme, the use for such purpose or land use right may, subject to subsection (2), continue if such use were lawful in terms of the Town Planning Ordinance or is permitted by the zoning scheme.
- (2) The right to continue the use of any land as contemplated in subsection (1), lapses -
 - (a) if such right is not exercised for an uninterrupted period of two years, at the expiration of the two years; or
 - (b) at the expiration of 15 years calculated from the date of coming into
- (3) The owner of the land contemplated in subsection (1) may, before the expiry of the period of 15 years referred to in subsection (2), apply to the relevant local authority for a continuation of the right to use land as referred to in subsection (1).
- (4) The local authority must consider an application referred to in subsection (3), and if -
 - (a) the owner concerned has suffered a loss; or
 - (b) an agreement cannot be reached or an amount of compensation cannot be agreed on as contemplated in section 59\(5\), the local authority may allow the owner concerned to use such land for a further period of not more than five years.

54. Rectifying non-compliance with zoning scheme

- (1) If a building or any part of a building has been constructed or is used in conflict with a zoning scheme which came into operation the relevant local authority may by written notice request the owner of the building -
 - (a) to rectify such contravention before a date specified in the request, which date may not be more than six months from the date of the request; or
 - (b) to apply, in terms of Part 3 of this Chapter, for the rezoning of land if that is necessary, before a date specified in the request, which date may not be more than 30 days from the date of the request.

- (2) If the owner contemplated in subsection (1) disputes the existence or the nature and extent of the contradiction to which the request referred to in that subsection relates, that owner must send, before the date referred to in that subsection, a written statement regarding such matter to the relevant local authority, for submission to the Minister.
- (3) On receipt of a statement in terms of subsection (2), the Minister must consult with the Board and the relevant local authority and must make a decision -
 - (a) in relation to the existence or the nature and extent of the contradiction; and
 - (b) whether the contradiction must be rectified.
- (4) If the Minister in terms of subsection (3)(b) decides that a contradiction be rectified, the Minister must determine the period within which such contradiction must be rectified.
- (5) If the owner contemplated in subsection (1) fails to comply with a request under that subsection and does not under subsection (2) dispute the existence or the nature and extent of the contradiction referred to in that subsection, the relevant local authority may -
 - (a) apply to the court for an order compelling the owner to remove or alter a building or other structural work which does not conform to the provisions of the zoning scheme concerned, so as to bring it into conformity with that zoning scheme;
 - (b) apply to the court for an order compelling the owner to remove or alter a building or other structural work constructed or carried out in contravention of a provision of the zoning scheme concerned, so as to bring it into conformity with the provisions of that zoning scheme;
 - (c) where a building or land is being used in such a manner as to contravene a provision of the zoning scheme, in writing to owner of the building or land, prohibit it from being so used;
 - (d) where land has since the zoning scheme came into operation been put to any use which contravenes any provision of that zoning scheme, reinstate the land; or
 - (e) execute work which it is the duty of the owner to execute under the zoning scheme concerned in a case where delay in the execution of the work has occurred and the efficient operation of the zoning scheme will be prejudiced by the delay.
- (6) The local authority may recover from the person contemplated in subsection (1) reasonable expenses incurred in the exercise of its powers under subsection (5).

Part 2 – AMENDMENT AND REVIEW OF ZONING SCHEMES

55. Amendment and review of zoning schemes

- (1) An amendment of a zoning scheme which involves rezoning of land must be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of Part 3 of this Chapter.
- (2) A local authority must review its zoning scheme after five years from the date of its commencement and such review must be finalised as soon as possible after the expiry of the five year period.
- (3) A town planning scheme approved in terms of the Town Planning Ordinance must be reviewed, as contemplated in subsection (2), within five years from the date of commencement of this Act.
- (4) Despite subsections (2) and (3), a local authority may at own initiative review its zoning scheme.
- (5) The provisions of Part 1 of this Chapter relating to the preparation, notification and approval of a zoning scheme apply, with necessary changes to the review of a zoning scheme in terms of subsections (2), (3) and (4), unless the Minister in terms of section 127 exempts the local authority or the review from compliance with certain provisions of Part 1 of this Chapter.

- (6) Where a local authority, after the five year period referred to in subsections (2) and (3), is of the opinion that the review of its zoning scheme is not necessary, the local authority must apply, with good reasons, to the Minister for an extension of the period of the validity of that zoning scheme.
- (7) Where the Minister decides to extend the validity of the zoning scheme the Minister must in the Gazette give notice of the extension and the period of extension.
- (8) Despite subsections (2), (3), (4) and (5), a local authority may amend its zoning scheme in order to -
 - (a) rectify spelling errors;
 - (b) update a reference to a law, person, functionary or an institution;
 - (c) update a reference a place name; or
 - (d) make other changes that are of a purely editorial nature.
- (9) A local authority must in the Gazette give notice of an amendment of a zoning scheme in terms of subsection (8).

Part 3 – REZONING OF LAND

56. Procedure and functionary

- (1) The rezoning of land -
 - (a) in a local authority area which has an authorised planning authority; and
 - (b) which is in accordance with the applicable urban structure plan which is approved in terms of this Act,must be approved in accordance with Part 1 of Chapter 9.
- (2) The rezoning of land in a local authority area which does not have an authorised planning authority or which is not in accordance with the applicable urban structure plan which is approved in terms of this Act must be approved by the Minister in accordance with Part 2 of Chapter 9.
- (3) The rezoning of land which is outside a local authority area must be approved by the Minister in accordance with in accordance with Part 3 of Chapter 9.

57. Matters to be considered

In deciding whether or not to approve the rezoning of land, the functionary authorised to approve the rezoning as contemplated in section 56, must take into account the following, insofar as they are applicable -

- (a) comments and objections received in response to the invitation for comments and objections on the proposed rezoning;
- (b) the potential impact of the proposed rezoning on the environment, socio-economic conditions and cultural heritage;
- (c) whether the requirements of other applicable legislation have been complied with;
- (d) the impact of the proposed rezoning on existing or proposed developments or land uses in the area;
- (e) the provision of engineering services;
- (f) access to and capacity of the national road network or the municipal road network;
- (g) access to public transport, health and educational facilities;

- (h) the impact of the proposed rezoning on municipal services, water and electricity supply, sewage, waste management and removal, safety and security;

- (j) the natural and physical qualities of the area;
- (k) the national spatial development framework and the applicable regional structure plan approved in terms of this Act;
- (l) the relevant urban structure plan approved in terms of this Act;
- (m) the relevant zoning scheme;
- (n) the objects set out in section 2;
- (o) the principles and standards referred to in section 3; and
- (p) any other relevant or prescribed information or documents.

58. Giving notice of approval

The functionary which approved the rezoning of land as contemplated in section 56 must in the Gazette give notice of approval of the amendment to the zoning scheme concerned and such amendment comes into operation on the date of publication of the notice.

Part 4 – COMPENSATION

59. Compensation

- (1) If -
 - (a) at the coming into operation of a zoning scheme; or
 - (b) by the execution of work by a local authority under a zoning scheme which came into operation, any land or building is increased in value, the local authority responsible for the enforcement of that zoning scheme may within twelve months after the date of coming into operation of that scheme or within twelve months after the completion of the work, recover from the owner whose land or building is so increased in value an amount prescribed by the Minister.

- (2) Any question arising as to the right of a local authority to recover any amount in respect of an increase in the value of any land or the amount and manner of payment must be dealt with in accordance with section 62.
- (3) An owner of land -
 - (a) who has suffered any loss or damage due to -
 - (i) alterations made to that land;
 - (ii) the removal or demolition of any improvements on land; or
 - (iii) the alteration, suspension or deletion of a condition relating to land, as a result of the coming into operation of a zoning scheme; or
 - (b) who, as a result of -
 - (i) complying with a provision of a zoning scheme which has come into operation; or

- (ii) the institution of a claim under this Part,
- has incurred expenditure may, within the period stated in section 60\(2\), claim compensation from the relevant local authority.
- (4) A claim for compensation under subsection (3) may be for -
 - (a) the amount by which the value of the land in question has decreased;
 - (b) the amount of damage; or
 - (c) the amount of reasonable expenditure.
- (5) The relevant local authority must pay the owner contemplated in subsection (3), the amount agreed on between the owner and the local authority.
- (6) If an agreement is not reached within 90 days after a claim for compensation as contemplated in subsection (4) is made, to the local authority must in writing refer the question whether the land concerned has decreased in value or not to the Minister for determination.
- (7) The Minister must send the referral referred to in subsection (6), to the Board for its recommendation.
- (8) On receipt of a referral under subsection (7), the Board must -
 - (a) consider the referral and make recommendations on it; and
 - (b) send to the Minister a copy of the minutes of the proceedings considering the referral as well as a report containing its recommendations.
- (9) On receipt of the Board's recommendations in terms of subsection (8), the Minister must make a decision and in writing inform the relevant local authority who must in writing inform the owner of the land.

60. Institution of claim for compensation

- (1) A person intending to institute a claim for compensation under section 59\(3\), must send a written claim to the chief executive officer of the relevant local authority and the claim must in sufficient detail state the amount claimed and the reasons for the claim.
- (2) A claim contemplated in subsection (1), must be instituted -
 - (a) within 12 months after the date of coming into operation of the zoning scheme giving rise to such claim; or
 - (b) within six months after the date on which the amendment of a zoning scheme or a review of a zoning scheme or a rezoning becomes operational.
- (3) If, in a claim instituted under subsection (1), the claimant alleges that land in question has been damaged by the execution of any work as a result of the coming into operation of a zoning scheme, a claim in respect of such damage must be instituted within 6 months after the completion of such work.
- (4) The Minister may, on a written and motivated application, extend the period within which a claim for compensation under subsection (2) or (3) may be made, if the Minister is satisfied that the failure to make such claim within the period concerned is based on good reasons.
- (5) If compensation is awarded in terms of this Part to the owner of any land which is subject to a mortgage, the relevant local authority must pay to the mortgagee or, if more than one, to the mortgagees in the order of their priority, in satisfaction or reduction of any principal or interest secured by mortgages -
 - (a) the compensation awarded to the owner of the land; or

- (b) if the compensation is more than sufficient to satisfy the total sum so secured, a sufficient portion,
- and with the approval of any mortgagee the amount of compensation which would otherwise be payable to the mortgagee must be paid to the owner of land.
- (6) If there is any dispute, in terms of subsection (5), as to the amount owing on the security of any mortgage on land referred to in that subsection, the compensation payable to the owner of land must be kept by the relevant local authority, until the parties have reached a settlement or one or other of the parties to such dispute has obtained a final order of court determining the amount owing.

61. Limitations in respect of claims for compensation

- (1) Compensation is not payable under section 60, in respect of the damage to land or loss suffered or expenses incurred as result of the implementation of the provisions of a zoning scheme which came into operation and which -

- but, compensation is payable,

- (i) if, by fixing any building line in terms of a provision of a zoning scheme as contemplated in paragraph (b), the area of the land of any owner fronting the street or the proposed street will be diminished to such an extent as to render it substantially less suitable for the erection of a building or buildings in conformity with the zoning scheme, whether by reason of the shape of the land or otherwise; and
 - (ii) on the enforcement of a provision of a zoning scheme as contemplated in paragraph (g), which requires that any building must be used in a manner different from that in which it was being used at the date on which the resolution to prepare the scheme took effect and such use has been continuous up to the date of such enforcement.
- (2) Compensation is not payable in respect of the operation of any provision of a zoning scheme if such provision could have been made and enforced under any other law without liability by the local authority concerned to pay compensation.
- (3) If a person is entitled to compensation under this Part in respect of any matter or thing and he or she would be entitled to compensation in respect of the same matter or thing under any other law, the person will not be entitled to compensation in respect of that matter or thing both under this Act and that other law and he or she is also not entitled to any greater compensation under this Act than he or she would have been under that other law.
- (4) A person does not have a right to compensation in respect of any action taken by a local authority under section 54\(5\), except where a building or work which a local authority has removed, pulled down or altered already existed before the zoning scheme came into operation.
- (5) Compensation is not payable in terms of this Part in respect of any building constructed or any work done in contravention of any provision of a zoning scheme.
- (6) If a zoning scheme is substituted with another zoning scheme no compensation is payable in respect of any land by reason that the land has been injuriously affected by the new zoning scheme, if the provisions of the new zoning scheme are the same or substantially the same as the provision of the substituted zoning scheme.

62. Determining claims for compensation

- (1) Any question arising under this Act as to -
 - (a) the right of a claimant to recover compensation under this Part;
 - (b) the right of a local authority to recover any amount under this Part; or
 - (c) the amount payable by way of compensation under this Part,must be determined under the Arbitration Act, 1965 (Act No. 42 of 1965), unless the relevant local authority and the persons concerned, agree otherwise.
- (2) The relevant local authority may at any time within three months from the date of an award of compensation under this Part in respect of the property injuriously affected, give notice to the claimant of its intention to amend or to withdraw and substitute the zoning scheme which gave rise to the claim for compensation.
- (3) If notice has been given in terms of subsection (2), the relevant local authority must within six weeks from the date of the notice amend or substitute the relevant zoning scheme with the new zoning scheme.

Chapter 6

 - (j) the construction of roads or streets to give access where no access exists or where access is not satisfactory;
 - (k) the endowment, if any, which must be made to a local authority or the State in trust for a future local authority; or

- (1) any other conditions which the functionary considers necessary or desirable in the interests of the safety, health and well-being of the residents of the township or the public.
- (2) The functionary authorised to impose conditions in terms of subsection (1) may specify conditions to be complied with before the sale of land or the transfer of land.
- (3) A functionary may not, in terms of subsection (1), impose conditions which are in conflict with -
 - (a) the applicable urban structure plan; and
 - (b) the applicable zoning scheme,which have been approved in terms of this Act.
- (4) The conditions referred to in subsection (1) may be imposed on all erven or portions of land or on only some of the erven or portions of land.
- (5) If the making of an endowment forms part of the conditions imposed under subsection (1), the endowment must be made in the prescribed form and manner and during the prescribed period.
- (6) An endowment is not payable in terms of this section, where land is transferred or rented to a local authority, regional council or the State.
- (7) An endowment payable in terms of this section must be used to establish public places or to carry out improvements or maintenance on public places or may be used for any other prescribed purposes.
- (8) If conditions are imposed on any land as contemplated in subsection (1), the functionary imposing such conditions -
 - (a) must, where a condition relates to the payment of an endowment; and
 - (b) may, in any other case,make the fulfilment of the condition a prerequisite for the sale of land or the transfer of the land or the transfer of a portion of the land.
- (9) If the fulfilment of a condition has been made a prerequisite for the transfer of land as contemplated in subsection (8), the Registrar of Deeds may not transfer the land in question, unless a certificate, issued by the functionary authorised to approve the establishment of a township as contemplated in section 64, is lodged with the Registrar of Deeds certifying that the condition has been fulfilled.
- (10) If, by virtue of a condition imposed under this section a person is required to transfer land to the State, a regional council or a local authority such land must be so transferred at the expense of the person who has to transfer the land.
- (11) No transfer duty, stamp duty or deeds registration fees are payable in the case that land is in terms of this section transferred or rented to a local authority, a regional council or the State and no stamp duty is payable in respect of the diagrams or documents concerned.
- (12) If an application for the establishment of a township is recommended by the Board -
 - (a) the Minister may not amend the conditions recommended by the Board or impose further conditions without consulting the Board; and
 - (b) the Board may not recommend and the Minister may not impose any conditions which are in conflict with the applicable urban structure plan or zoning scheme.

67. Prohibition on approval of building plans conflicting with conditions of approval

After the approval of the establishment of a township as contemplated in section 64, the relevant local authority may not approve building plans which are in conflict with the conditions imposed in terms of section 66.

Part 2 – STEPS AFTER APPROVAL OF ESTABLISHMENT OF TOWNSHIP

68. Survey of land and lodging of plans, diagrams and other documents with Surveyor-General

After the approval of the establishment of a township as contemplated in section 64, the person in respect of whom such approval has been made must as soon as possible survey the land in question and lodge with the Surveyor-General, for his or her approval, such plans, diagrams or other documents as the Surveyor-General may require.

69. Lodging of deeds, plans, diagrams and other documents with Registrar of Deeds

- (1) On receipt of the Surveyor-General's approval under section 68, the person in respect of whom the approval has been made must, within six months from the date of approval of the plans, diagrams or other documents, lodge with the Registrar of Deeds for endorsement or registration -
 - (a) the title deed under which the land is owned; and
 - (b) the plans and diagrams and documents as approved by the Surveyor-General.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), if the person contemplated in subsection (1) fails to lodge the deed, plans, diagrams or documents within the period referred to in that subsection, the approval to establish a township lapses.
- (3) The functionary which approved the establishment of a township as contemplated in section 64, may on good grounds extend the period referred to in subsection (1) for a period of one year.
- (4) On receipt of the relevant documents under subsection (1), the Registrar of Deeds, must -
 - (a) if all the land owned under the title deed referred to in that subsection has been taken up in the proposed township, endorse each title deed and the duplicate original copies of the title deed, stating that the land concerned has been laid out as a township; or
 - (b) if only a portion of the land owned under the title deed referred to in that subsection has been taken up in the proposed township, issue under the hand and seal to the local authority or person concerned a certificate of township title for the portion so comprised and before issuing the certificate of township title must write off on the title deed of the remainder of the land the area of the portion described in such certificate and send the diagrams relating to the area to the Surveyor-General to make the necessary deductions.
- (5) The certificate referred to in subsection 4(b) is for all purposes the sole title deed for the portion of land described in it.
- (6) If the land owned under a certificate of township title is mortgaged with a bond or if any encumbrance of any kind is disclosed on the title deed submitted to the Registrar of Deeds under this section, the Registrar of Deeds must, after the issuing of a certificate of township title -
 - (a) endorse on the mortgage bond or document evidencing the encumbrance, the statement that such a certificate has been issued in respect of the land;
 - (b) make an entry of that fact in the relevant register; and
 - (c) endorse on the certificate that the land owned under such certificate has been hypothecated or otherwise encumbered by the mortgage bond or document in accordance with this subsection, but the written consent of the lawful holder of the bond or other encumbrance must in every case be submitted to the Registrar of Deeds.

- (7) If the Registrar of Deeds has made the endorsements or entry as contemplated in subsection (6), the land owned under the certificate of township title is regarded to be hypothecated or otherwise encumbered, as fully and effectually as if it has been originally hypothecated or encumbered by the mortgage bond or other encumbrance.
- (8) Having endorsed or registered the title deeds contemplated in subsection (1), the Registrar of Deeds must in writing notify the functionary which approved the establishment of the township as contemplated in section 64 and the person in respect of whom an establishment of a township has been approved, of such endorsement or registration.
- (9) After giving notice in terms of subsection (8), the Registrar of Deeds may not register further transactions in connection with land situated in the township concerned until such township has been declared as an approved township in terms of section 71.

70. Ownership of public places in township

The ownership of any public place on land in a township vests, from the date of approval by the Surveyor-General of the plans and diagrams or documents in terms of section 68, in the local authority or in the State in trust for a future local authority.

71. Declaration of township as approved township

- (1) After section 68 and section 69 have been complied with, the functionary which approved the establishment of a township as contemplated in section 64, must -
 - (a) by notice in the Gazette, declare the township represented by the general plan concerned to be an approved township; and
 - (b) in the schedule to the notice referred to in paragraph (a), specify the conditions of approval.

Part 3 – PROHIBITIONS PENDING DECLARATION OF APPROVED TOWNSHIP

72. Prohibition of certain agreements pending declaration of approved township

- (1) After an owner of land has taken steps to establish a township, the owner may, subject to subsection (2) -
 - (a) enter into an agreement with a person for the sale, exchange, donation or disposal in any other manner of an erf in such a township; or
 - (b) grant an option to purchase or otherwise acquire an erf in such a township.
- (2) For the purpose of an agreement contemplated in subsection (1), the owner contemplated in that subsection may not accept money from any person until the township is declared as an approved township in terms of section 71.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a person is not considered to have accepted money, if the money is paid by the purchaser into the trust account of a legal practitioner and is held in trust for the purchaser -
 - (a) until the township is established and the conditions imposed under section 66\(2\) and section 66\(8\) are fulfilled, in which case the money must be paid to the person; or
 - (b) until -
 - (i) the owner becomes insolvent, in which case the money must be repaid to the purchaser; or

- (ii) it appears that the township will not be established or the owner is unable or willing to comply with the conditions referred to in section 66\(2\) or 66\(8\), in which case money must be repaid to the purchaser.
- (4) Subsection (2) does not prohibit the owner contemplated in subsection (1) from purchasing the land on which the owner intends to establish a township subject to a condition that at the declaration of such township as an approved township, one or more erven in that area will be transferred to the seller.
- (5) Any obligation in an agreement which, except as provided in subsection (3), requires a person to pay any money, before a township is declared as an approved township in terms of section 71, is invalid.
- (6) A person who contravenes subsection (2), commits an offence and is on conviction liable to a fine not exceeding N$ 100 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 10 years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

73. Prohibition of registration of transfer of erven

The Registrar of Deeds may not in the deeds registry register the transfer of an erf in a township -

- (a) by which the ownership of an erf is transferred before the township has been declared as an approved township in terms of section 71;
- (b) unless the conditions that are, under this Chapter, required to be registered against the title deed of such an erf is part of the transfer; or
- (c) unless the conditions contemplated in section 66\(2\) and 66\(8\), which are required to be complied with before the transfer of an erf, are complied with.

Part 4 – ALTERATION OF BOUNDARIES OF APPROVED TOWNSHIPS

74. Alteration of boundaries of approved township

- (1) The boundaries of an approved township may only be altered in accordance with this Act.
- (2) If any area of land constitutes, by reason of its situation -
 - (a) a portion of an approved township; or
 - (b) adjoins an approved township,the boundaries of that approved township may be altered to include that area.

75. Procedure and functionary

- (1) The alteration of boundaries of an approved township must be approved by the functionary which is authorised to approve the establishment of a township in terms of section 64.
- (2) The provision of sections 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69 and 70, insofar as they are applicable, apply with the necessary changes to an alteration of boundaries of an approved township.

76. Giving notice of approval

After the requirements of sections 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69 and 70, have been complied with, the functionary which approved the alteration of boundaries must give notice of the alteration in the Gazette and the conditions, if any, subject to which the alteration has been approved and the alteration of boundaries comes into operation on the date of publication of the notice.

Part 5 – DISESTABLISHMENT OF APPROVED TOWNSHIP OR PORTION OF APPROVED TOWNSHIP

77. Who may apply for disestablishment of approved township or portion of approved township

- (1) The owner of all land and erven in an approved township may apply for approval to disestablish that township or a portion of that township.
- (2) The reference to owner in subsection (1), does not include ownership in respect of -
 - (a) public places;
 - (b) erven or land which has been reserved for the State;
 - (c) erven or land which has been reserved for any public purpose;
 - (d) erven or land which in terms of this Act or a prior law regulating township establishments, has been transferred to a local authority or the State in trust for a future local authority;
 - (e) erven or land which has been reserved for local authority purposes; and
 - (f) erven or land which has been reserved for the endowment to a local authority.

78. Procedure and functionary

- (1) The disestablishment of an approved township or a portion of an approved township must be approved by the functionary which is authorised to approve the establishment of the township as contemplated in section 64.
- (2) The provisions of sections 64, 65 and 66, insofar as they are applicable, apply with the necessary changes to a disestablishment of an approved township or portion of an approved township.

79. Giving notice of approval

After approving the disestablishment of an approved township or a portion of an approved township, the functionary which is authorised to approve the disestablishment as contemplated in section 78 must give notice of approval of the disestablishment in the Gazette and the conditions, if any, subject to which the disestablishment has been approved and the disestablishment comes into operation on the date of publication of the notice.

80. Alteration or cancellation of general plan

- (1) If an approved township or a portion of an approved township is disestablished as contemplated in section 78, the Surveyor-General must cancel the relevant general plan or the relevant portion of the general plan filed in the deeds registry or the Surveyor-General's office.
- (2) The Surveyor-General may, for the purpose of rectifying an error, in accordance with section 25 of the Land Survey Act, alter or amend a general plan of an approved township.

81. Alteration or cancellation of general plan on application

- (1) An owner of an approved township intending to have the general plan of an approved township altered or cancelled by the Surveyor-General in terms of section 25 of the Land Survey Act, must first apply for the Minister's approval to do so.
- (2) The reference to owner in subsection (1), does not include ownership in respect of -
 - (a) public places;

- (b) erven or land which has been reserved for the State;
 - (c) erven or land which has been reserved for any public purpose;
 - (d) erven or land which in terms of this Act or a prior law regulating township establishments has been transferred to a local authority or the State in trust for a future local authority;
 - (e) erven or land which has been reserved for local authority purposes; and
 - (f) erven or land which has been reserved for the endowment to a local authority.
- (3) The procedure set out in Part 3 of Chapter 9 applies with necessary changes to an application referred to in subsection (1).
 - (4) After the Minister has approved or refused an application contemplated in subsection (1), the Minister must in writing inform the applicant and the Surveyor-General.
 - (5) An applicant who has been notified in terms of subsection (4) that his or her application has been approved, must lodge with the Surveyor General, the Minister's approval as well as such plans, diagrams or other documents the Surveyor-General may require for the purpose of making the proposed alteration or cancellation of the relevant general plan.

82. Giving notice of approval

If a general plan is altered or cancelled under section 81, the Surveyor-General must notify the applicant referred to in that section, the Minister and the Registrar of Deeds.

83. Effect of alteration or cancellation of general plan

- (1) If the general plan of an approved township or a portion of an approved township -
 - (a) is cancelled in terms of this Part; or
 - (b) has so been altered in terms of this Part, that any public place has been closed in terms of any other law, the ownership of land taken up by a public place, re-vests in the person on whose application the establishment of the township took place and the Registrar of Deeds must record the re-vesting and must make the necessary endorsements.

- (2) If a regional council or a local authority has incurred expenditure in respect of land which has been transferred to it as contemplated in section 66(10) or is legally bound to incur such expenditure, such land does not in terms of subsection (1) re-vest in the person contemplated in that subsection, until -
 - (a) such expenses have been reimbursed; or
 - (b) the regional council or local authority -
 - (i) has been indemnified for the expenditure to be incurred; or
 - (ii) has waived any claim in respect of such expenditure.
- (3) If the ownership of any land re-vests in the person on whose application the establishment of the township has taken place, in terms of subsection (1) -
 - (a) such land must be transferred, in the case where it is not registered in the name of that owner, to the owner at his or her own cost; and
 - (b) the Registrar of Deeds must endorse, in the case where the land is registered in the name of the owner of the approved township, the fact of the re-vesting on the title deed of that owner and record such re-vesting in the relevant registers.

Part 6 – CHANGE OF NAME OF APPROVED TOWNSHIP

84. Change of name of approved township

- (1) The name of an approved township may only be changed in terms of this Act.
- (2) The owner of all erven and land in an approved township, whether such land is situated inside or outside a local authority area, must obtain the approval of the Minister to change the name of the approved township.
- (3) The reference to an owner in terms of subsection (1), does not include ownership of -
 - (a) public places;
 - (b) erven or land which has been reserved for the State;
 - (c) erven or land which has been reserved for any public purpose;
 - (d) erven or land which in terms of this Act or a prior law regulating township establishments, has been transferred to a local authority or the State in trust for a local authority to be established;
 - (e) erven or land which has been reserved for local authority purposes; and
 - (f) erven or land which has been reserved for the endowment to a local authority.

85. Procedure and functionary

The procedure set out in Part 3 of Chapter 9 applies with the necessary changes to an application referred to in section 84.

86. Giving notice of approval

- (1) After approving the change of name of an approved township as contemplated in section 85, the Minister must give notice of the approval in the Gazette and the change of name comes into operation on the date of publication of the notice.
- (2) The Registrar of Deeds must endorse the change of name as approved by the Minister and must make the necessary notes and endorsements on the relevant title deeds.

Chapter 7

SUBDIVISION OR CONSOLIDATION OF LAND

Part 1 – SUBDIVISION OR CONSOLIDATION OF LAND

87. Subdivision or consolidation of land

Subject to any other law dealing with the subdivision of land, a person may not subdivide or consolidate land unless that subdivision or consolidation is approved in terms of this Act.

88. Procedure and functionary

- (1) The subdivision or consolidation of land -
 - (a) in a local authority area which has an authorised planning authority; and

- (b) which is in accordance with the urban structure plan which has been approved in terms of this Act, must be approved in accordance with Part 1 of Chapter 9.
- (2) The subdivision or consolidation of land in a local authority area which does not have an authorised planning authority or which is not in accordance with the urban structure plan which has been approved in terms of this Act must be approved by the Minister in accordance with Part 2 of Chapter 9.
- (3) The subdivision or consolidation of land outside a local authority area must be approved by the Minister in accordance with Part 3 of Chapter 9.

89. Matters to be considered

The functionary authorised as contemplated in section 88 to approve a subdivision or consolidation of land must in considering the proposed subdivision or consolidation take into account the matters set out in section 65, insofar as they are applicable.

90. Conditions of approval

The functionary authorised as contemplated in section 88 to approve a subdivision or consolidation of land, may impose conditions similar to the conditions set out in section 66(1) and the provisions of section 66(2) to (12), apply with the necessary changes in respect of the conditions imposed.

Part 2 – STEPS AFTER APPROVAL OF SUBDIVISION OR CONSOLIDATION OF LAND

91. Lodging of deeds, plans, diagrams and other documents with Surveyor-General and Registrar of Deeds

- (1) The owner of land in respect of which a subdivision or a consolidation has been approved as contemplated in section 88 must, within 12 months from the date of approval lodge for approval with the Surveyor-General such plans, diagrams or other documents as the Surveyor-General may require.
- (2) The owner contemplated in subsection (1) must, within six months after the date on which the Surveyor-General has approved the general plan and diagram, lodge with the Registrar of deeds the prescribed documents.
- (3) On receipt of the documents referred to in subsection (2), the Registrar of Deeds must endorse, issue or cancel the necessary deeds to effect the subdivision or consolidation in question.
- (4) If an owner contemplated in subsection (1) or (2) fails to lodge the plans, diagrams or documents concerned within the period referred to in those subsections the approval contemplated in section 88 lapses, unless the functionary which approved the subdivision or consolidation in terms of section 88 on good grounds extends those periods for a further period of six months.

92. Ownership of public places

If a subdivision entails the creation of public places, the ownership of such public places vests in the local authority in whose local authority area the land is situated from the date on which the general plan and documents are approved as contemplated in section 91.

Chapter 8

ALTERATION, SUSPENSION OR DELETION OF CONDITIONS RELATING TO LAND

93. Procedure and functionary

- (1) The Minister may in public interest alter, suspend or delete a condition of title or a condition of approval and the provisions of Part 3 of Chapter 9 apply with the necessary changes where the Minister intends to alter, suspend or delete a condition in terms of this subsection.
- (2) The alteration, suspension or deletion of conditions of title or conditions of approval -
 - (a) in a local authority area which has an authorised planning authority; and
 - (b) which is in accordance with the urban structure plan which has been approved in terms of this Act,must be approved in accordance with Part 1 of Chapter 9.
- (3) The alteration, suspension or deletion of conditions of title and conditions of approval in a local authority area which does not have an authorised planning authority or which is not in accordance with the urban structure plan which has been approved in terms of this Act must be approved by the Minister in accordance with Part 2 of Chapter 9.
- (4) The alteration, suspension or deletion of conditions of title and conditions of approval in respect of land within an approved township outside a local authority area must be approved by the Minister in accordance with Part 3 of Chapter 9.

97. Conditions subject to alteration, suspension or deletion

- (1) The following conditions are subject to alteration, suspension or deletion -
 - (a) a condition of title or a condition of approval which relates to -
 - (i) the subdivision or consolidation of the land;
 - (ii) the purpose for which the land may be used; or
 - (iii) requirements that must be complied with relating to the construction of buildings or the use of the land;
 - (b) a condition of approval for rezoning of land;
 - (c) a condition of approval for the establishment of a township; or
 - (d) a condition of approval for the subdivision or consolidation of land.
- (2) The following conditions of title do not fall under the ambit of subsection (1) -
 - (a) a condition of title which affect rights to minerals; and
 - (b) servitudes that create real or personal rights.

95. Matters to be considered

The functionary authorised to alter, suspend or delete conditions relating to that land as contemplated in section 93, must in considering the alteration, suspension or deletion of conditions relating to land take into account the matters set out in section 65, insofar as they are applicable.

96. Giving notice of approval

- (1) After the approval of an alteration, suspension or deletion of conditions relating to land the functionary which approved the alteration, suspension or deletion as contemplated in section 93, must give notice of the approval of the alteration, suspension or deletion of the conditions in the Gazette and the notice must indicate conditions, if any, subject to which the approval has been made.
- (2) The alteration, suspension or deletion which is approved as contemplated in section 93, comes into operation on the date of publication of the notice contemplated in subsection (1).

Chapter 9
