APPROVAL OF BUSINESS TO BE UNDERTAKEN BY BUILDING SOCIETY

Under section 21(1)(q) of the Building Societies Act, 1986 (Act 2 of 1986) I hereby approve that a building society may, provided it is so authorised by its rules, acquire or establish, or join with other building societies in acquiring or establishing, a company with limited liability registered or to be registered under the Companies Act, 1973 (Act 61 of 1973), the main activities of which shall be developing and marketing of computer software for financial institutions:

Provided that -

- (a) except with the consent of the Registrar of Building Societies, no person other than a building society shall hold, or be a beneficiary of, any share in any such company;
- (b) where the Registrar of Building Societies has granted consent that a person other than a building society may hold, or be a beneficiary of, any shares in any such company, a building society or building societies shall at all times hold shares in such company entitling such building society or building societies to a majority or preponderance of votes and to appoint a majority of the directors of such a company;
- (c) the memorandum and articles of association of any such company, in the case of establishment thereof, and the acquisition thereof, in the case of such acquisition, or any amendment of such memorandum or articles of association, shall be subject to the prior approval of the Registrar of Building Societies.
